Botanical.com

Stedman's Shorter Medical Dictionary

by T. L. Stedman, M.D., Wilcox & Follett Co., 1942

Poisons & Antidotes

---Lead---

Symptoms: Sweetish metallic taste in mouth, salivation, burning pain in stomach, vomiting usually of blood-stained matter, abdominal cramps, vertigo, cold sweats, headache, muscular weakness, cramps in the calves of the legs.

Treatment: Emetics or lavage with Epson salts; heat to the surface; caffeine, starch water, milk.

Poisons & Antidotes - Index
Botanical.com Home Page